Description

Ground floor for sale in Manacor, currently registered as a local, but ready to become your next home (change of use possible).

On the ground floor you have the open kitchen and a cosy living room, very comfortable and functional. The kitchen and the bathroom have been recently refurbished, so you forget about building works.

Upstairs there are two bedrooms and a small patio that you can use to create a second bathroom or whatever you need. Also, under the staircase you have the perfect corner for the washing machine and dryer, all well used.

The best thing: it is a house with a free roof, which gives you the option to build up to a first floor and get even more out of it.

A property with personality and many possibilities in a quiet area of Manacor.
